Welcome to ISOCO, the most suitable for training of advance skilled surfers.

Wakayama Surfing Association Chairperson Toshiki Umemoto

Isonoura beach (ISOCO), a surfing spot for beginners and experienced, has been doing best to promote competition surfing. We educate and spread right rules and manners of surfing in cooperation not only with local Isonoura beach (ISOCO), but also with the following organizations; Int'l Surfing Association (ISA), Nippon Surfing Association (NSA), Japan Professional Surfing Association (JPSA), WORLD SURF LEAGUE/Japan (WSL Japan), Osaka prefectural Surfing Association, and other companies/organizations concerned. Thus, Isonoura beach (ISOCO) will be more and more attractive surfing spot. We all welcome you to Isonoura beach (ISOCO) which is best suited for surf training camps.

Very unique waves will capture the heart of surfers.

What is Wakayama Surfing Association

In 1995, for the first time in Japan, the association was officially registered to the national and prefectural office as a sport promotional organization. We have been working hard to raise awareness about sport surfing to the same awareness level of baseball, football or tennis. Our positive activities to develop surfing culture and to conserve beach environment gained recognition, and in 2015 we were awarded with Medal with Green Ribbon by cabinet office/imperial household agency. It is a leading association of surfing related organizations.

Surfer Friendly Cuisine

Wakayama city including Kada/Isonoura has rich ingredients from the sea and mountains. Here are some popular food among surfers. Seabream and whitebait from Kitan strait are not only delicious but contain rich nutrient necessary to athletes. Wakayama has plenty of delicious foods including "Wakayama Ramen" which captured the hearts of Ramen freaks all over Japan.

Seabream

Kitan strait and surrounding sea is one of the best seabream fishing spots in Japan. Seabreams caught by rod are of finest quality with deliciousness and good texture. Seabream is a good source of quality protein for muscles supporting body trunk, and accelerate metabolism. It can be enjoyed in various ways, Otsukuri (raw fish), Shabushabu, Carpaccio and Taimeshi (cooked rice with seabream). Savor delicious and nutritious seabream of Kada.

Wakashirasu (whitebait)

The young anchovies. Produce of the sea around Wakayama which is rich in minerals is specially branded as "Wakashirasu". As Wakashirasu is high in calcium, it enhances bones and protect from over fatting. It is good for maintaining good conditions of surfers. Kamaage Wakashirasu, whitebait right from the boiling pot, is eaten with grated radish or soy sauce. Raw or boiled Wakashirasu on top of rice, vinegared Wakashirasu, and miso soup with Wakashirasu are also recommended.

Wakayama Chinese noodle/Ramen

Wakayama Ramen is locally called "Chuka-soba / Chinese noodles". There are 3 types of Wakayama ramen depending on soup. First, it is soy sauce based soup. The soup is dark, yet it is very smooth. The second is a mix of Tonkotsu (pork bone broth) and soy sauce soup. Its thick, heavy broth is tasty. The third is a new type of broth. Enjoy them all while you are here.

Ginger Ale

Wakayama is one of the leading young ginger produce areas in Japan. Taking 2 years, under cooperation of agriculture, industry, commerce and administration sectors, they developed new type of ginger ale based on the young ginger. The refreshing and its pungent flavor of young ginger is loved by everyone.

Refresh at Tourist Spots

There are various interesting tourist spots in Kada and Isonoura area. Tomogashima islands by boat from Kada port, Awashima-jinja shrine famous for Hina Nagashi ritual, Nishinosho herb garden growing 70 kinds of herbs. Those tourist facilities and surrounding nature will help refreshing athletes' mind and body during the training camp.

Awashima-Jinja Shrine

Dedicated to the god of medication Sukunahikona-no-mikoto, the shrine is worshiped as guardian of women. People prayed for childbirth, smooth delivery, recovery from illness, good match from ancient times. One of the main festivals is Hina-nagashi (floating dolls) ritual on 3 March. According to a folklore, it started when people prayed to the god for a good health of a princess of the local Kishu-clan. Lots of ladies from all over Japan visit the shrine on the day together with their loved dolls. The main hall of the shrine is filled with more than 20,000 dolls, which brings a wondrous world.

Tomogashima Islands

Tomogashima Islands situated in Kitan strait consists of four islands, Chinoshima Is., Torashima Is., Kamijima Is. and Okinoshima Is. In Okinoshima Is., there is a promenade visiting old fortresses. In the central area you will find 400 kinds of plants including colonies of wetland plants. Historical sites relating to En-no-Gyoja (ascetic monk) and his practice sites are remaining in the island, which reminds us of old history. Tomogashima Islands are reachable by boat from Kada port. (Tomogashima steam line)

Coast Line of Kada

Kada swimming beach, a natural shoaling beach with calm waves, is good for beach walking. Inhabited in inshore are Gangara-shells, hermit crabs, blue-green algae, and when tide is out you will find fish and octopus in pools. It is very enjoyable. A beautiful sunset glow over and beyond Kitan strait is one of the most beautiful views of Wakayama prefecture and attracts many visitors. Rejuvenate yourself with the beautiful sunset view during your surf training.

Nishinosho Fureaino-sato / Herb Garden

Situated on a hill with a scenic view of Wakayama-city, the garden is colored and scented by 70 kinds of herbs of each season, including lavenders and mints. Breathtaking panoramic view and scent of herbs will refresh your bodies and minds. Seeding of herbs are available at 200 yen.
